

Media Release

Isaac Regional Council towns clean up at Regional Tidy Towns Awards

At the Keep Australia Beautiful Tidy Towns Awards held in Mackay on 30th July 2008, the towns of Nebo and Glenden were chosen as the Whitsunday, Mackay and Isaac Region's best representatives in the following categories:

Isaac Regional Council Mayor, Cr Cedric Marshall said “These prestigious awards are representative of the collective efforts of Council, Local Business and Communities working together to achieve recognition for a diverse range of activities that promotes what is best in the region”.

Pictured below are Councillors Geoff Bethel and Bob Oakes with Mr Brant Ward, Programs Director of KAB who were on hand to collect the awards. Both Councillors paid tribute to the communities of Nebo and Glenden in the Isaac Region for their commitment and interest in helping to achieve these awards.

ENDS