POLICY STATEMENT

Creativity connects and energises our people, powers our communities by improving our health and sense of well being, and provides opportunities for cultural tourism that feed creative industry development.

Our people shape our culture through their stories, values, resilience, creativity, generosity, and way of life.

Council is committed to building a framework to support arts and cultural development in the Isaac Region. Through supporting arts and culture, IRC aims to:

- Connect communities through accessible venues, programs and projects.
- Celebrate people, places and stories of the region through the arts.
- Champion arts and cultural leaders.
- Create opportunities for cultural tourism.
- Cultivate partnerships and resources to build capacity of the arts sector.

Council will implement this policy through the Arts and Cultural Action Plan 2018-2022

- The Arts and Cultural Action Plan 2018-2022 details how the Arts and Cultural Policy will be implemented.
- An annual review and report will document the progress of the Arts and Cultural Action Plan 2018-2022
